During the consultation we can answer with the following questions:

- Which documents are required when searching for housing?
- How can I find offers for housing online?
- What is the maximum rent for subsidised apartments?
- Which documents need to be submitted to the relevant authorities once an apartment is found?
- What happens after I move into an apartment (e.g. setting up utilities such as electricity and internet)

We will also gladly assist you with completing forms, or in collecting the required documents.

Furthermore, a laptop will also be available. Here we can help with your search for housing offers or formulate cover letters to send to landlords together.

 Important: Unfortunately we do not ourselves offer any apartments *****
